LONDON, future cooperation of the Socialist Parties in Europe is planned, as follows:

1. Steady exchange of thoughts and experience among the Socialist parties, with prominent personalities in the US labor union movement participating.
2. Adaption of the Socialist economy doctrine to the present situation.
3. Holding a conference of Socialist economic experts in Sweden in September 1949 on the subject "Economic democracy and full employment".
4. Possible establishment of a new Socialist International. French socialists are particularly interested in this step.
5. Establishment of a new organization for socialist emigrants from Central and Eastern Europe, which incidentally would maintain connections with socialist friends on the other side of the Iron Curtain.
